Blood On The Forge

Blood on the Forge is a migration novel by the African-American writer William Attaway set in the steel valley of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, during 1919, a time when vast numbers of Black Americans moved northward. Attaway's own family was part of this population shift from South to North when he was a child.

Blood on the Forge - Wikipedia

Blood on the Forge is the story of 3 African-American brothers who leave sharecropping in Kentucky to work in a steel mill in western Pennsylvania. We see the action through two of the brother's experiences in clear and unornamented prose that nevertheless contains a hint of poetry, or perhaps, given one brother's blues guitar playing, music.
