Day World Ended Rohmer Sax

A wonderfully over the top story from Sax Rohmer, probably the best novel of his I've read. The story gets off to a flying start and keeps up the pace until around the last quarter, which is something of a let down, the story would have probably been better if the supernatural elements had been real, the conclusion is overly hurried and unsatisfying, and the villain no match for Fu Manchu.

The Day the World Ended by Sax Rohmer - Goodreads

Gaston Max, Sax Rohmer's rather dapper French detective, and the greatest criminal investigator in Europe, makes his third appearance in The Day the World Ended. This story is closer to mainstream science fiction than any other Sax Rohmer work.
