Love, a Second Chance: A Regency Romance Springtime ...

The title says it is a regency but the language used was definitely not fitting of the time period. The characters were overdone and there was no development, you know how they felt because they said it but there was no reasoning or explanation of why and how they came to feel that way, both with the animosity between Cynthia and the stepmother and also with the love stories.

Maid to Be Mine: A Regency Cinderella Story - Kindle ...

Love Be Mine is a grand romance with hilarious ups and downs that gets a reader through those times when the novel plays havoc with their tender emotions. The storytelling is rich, busy, and entertaining. The dialogue provides insight and interest and kept the momentum of the plot moving right along.
