Their story is the story of one Mexican-American family, but it is also in some ways the story of all families. Watching it, I was reminded of my own family's legends and heroes and stray sheep, and the strong sense of home. "Another country?" young Jose says, when he is told where Los Angeles is. "What does that mean - `another country?'"

My Family movie review & film summary (1995) | Roger Ebert
My family, to put it lightly, has been driving me Absolutely Fucking Nuts. I love them in small doses but being back for so long is reminding how Fucking Dysfunctional they are. Please, someone give me sympathy and the strength needed to survive the next 4 months in this fucking house. Ugh. 0 comments.
